From

The Government Advocate

To

The Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore

Sir,

I beg to submit for the favorable consideration of the Government the enclosed letter in Original, from the Assistant Govt Advocate, as far as I can see, there is no prospect whatever of Clerk Venkatacharyya getting any promotion in the Legislative Department: There is no Official in that Department who gets more than 40 Rupees pay,

Yours

excepting the Dunnages whose pay is Rs: 125.

That Venkatgovindapah is deserving of an increase to his pay.
I fully concur in the Assistant Government Advocates opinion.
his work has increased to considerably (231 being the number of Cases which passed through his hands in 1893) that it is almost a wonder that he has got through them unaided.

In Conclusion I respectfully beg to support the Assistant Govt.
Advocates proposals for raising the pay of the Clerk to 50 Rupees a month, his present pay being 40 Rupees, for sanctioning an Extra Clerk on 20 Rs.
& an Extra Peon on 6 Rupees.

Statement

Statement of proceedings herewith Submitted.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant.

Encl. No. 1. Assistant Govt. Advocate's

Office 16th January 1894

No. 14

From The Assistant Govt. Advocate
in Mysore

To The Government Advocate
in Mysore

Sir,

With reference to the Letter No. 72, dated 19th May 1893 from you to the Government enclosing my proposal for the establishment and promotion to the present clerk the Government was pleased to pass Proceedings, Order No. 5732/1631, dated 23rd September 1893 sanctioning you as Legislative Secretary to give promotion to M. Venkat Ganesh in the Legislative Office and to lend a clerk of that Department.

to do work in the Government Advocate's Office.

2. With reference to these Proceedings I sent a letter to the Legislative Secretary to Comply with the Proceedings of the Government, the Manager of the Legislative Department informing me that no clerk can be spared and I also learn that no Clerk's pay in that Office is more than 40 Rupees.
Consequently I think it is not possible for you as Legislative Secretary to give effect to the Proceedings of the Government.
If you are also of the same opinion
I request that you will be good enough to recommend for an increase of pay the present clerk and for the entertainment of an additional clerk & a person

I need hardly say that the Clerical work in the office is increasing year after year and it is quite impossible for one Clerk to manage

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant.

Assistant Govt Advocate

To

The Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore

Sir,

In Submitting for the favourable Consideration of the Govt. letter No. 2240 dated 29th ultimo, from the assistant Government Advocate I beg to State that transcription work has increased so considerably that it is not possible for a single Clerk to get through it - even with occasional assistance from the Legislative Department.

2. The Splitting of the Salary of the present Clerk is not possible until a provision is made for him elsewhere - and I see no reasonable prospect of providing him with a Suitable appointment in the Legislative Department.

Venkata Giriappa

Venkata Giriappa is a fairly educated intelligent man and if the Government should be pleased to transfer him to some other office the proposal made by the assistant Government Advocate to entertain 2 clerks on 25 & 20 Rs. may conveniently be carried out at an additional cost of only 5 Rs a month. and pending such time - I beg that Government will be pleased to sanction temporarily the appointment of a clerk on 20 Rs as requested by Mr. Ramaswamy Iyer.

Venkatagiriah the only Clerk in my office is laid up and unable to attend to his duties. He has applied for 8 months privilege leave. He has taken no leave for the last 9 years. He is entitled to the leave and I have granted him.

I have appointed a Substitute on a pay of Rs 20 a month pending the Sanction of the Government & request that you will be good enough to obtain the necessary Sanction with effect from 26th instant.

I take this opportunity of requesting you, with reference to your letter No 179 D/ 22nd January 1894 to the Government to apply apply to the Government for the entertainment of an additional Clerk on a pay of Rs 20 & if this could not be done to request the Government to provide the present Clerk Venkad Gerish with an appointment elsewhere and to permit me to appoint two Clerks One on a pay of Rs 25 & the other on Rs 20 per month

In Conclusion I beg to State that it is absolutely impossible for one Clerk to manage the business of the office & to copy the records in appeals & revision Cases.
